 @MariusVizer

The International Judo Federation will debut in Inner Mongolia this June as Hohhot in North China will be added to the list of destination cities for the IJF World Judo Tour.

From 30 June – 2 July Hohhot will be at the centre of the judo world for the first time and there are high expectations from all parties for this new event.

The Hohhot Grand Prix serves as the final IJF senior competition before August's World Championships and will be a key event for all judoka as they seek selection and a seeded position at our annual showpiece event.

The IJF enjoys a rich and dynamic collaboration with the Chinese Judo Association and the country in general and I would like to thank the Association for their unwavering support and commitment to the IJF World Judo Tour.

I wish you all an enjoyable time in Hohhot and trust you will all display the values of our sport at all times.

Individuals deemed to have acted against the IJF, its principles or purposes should be subject to suspension or expulsion from the event and/or cancellation of their accreditation cards.

INSURANCE

Each National Federation is responsible for its competitors (the control of non-pregnancy as well as the control of gender are placed under the responsibility of the National Federations) and must assume all responsibility for accident and health insurance as well as the civil liabilities for their competitors and officials, during the event described in these outlines. The organizer of the event and the IJF will not be responsible for any insurance related to the above-mentioned matters. Nevertheless the National Judo Federation staging the event shall take all necessary actions to provide insurance coverage against civil liability for the entire duration.
