16-17 December

Dear Friends!

I am pleased to welcome you in St. Petersburg, Russia, at the prestigious Masters tournament which is one of the most important sport events in 2017. Masters tournaments have been held since 2010 and we are glad that in the new Olympic cycle we will host the event where the elite of world judo competes.

The northern Capital of the Russian Federation is considered to be one of the most sporting cities in our country. St. Petersburg is well-known as a hometown of “Yavara-Neva” – the most titled European sport club – and as a venue for Junior European Judo Cup. Judo is loved and appreciated here. I am sure that holding the Masters tournament in St. Petersburg will be an excellent motivation for a new generation of Russian people to practice judo.

I hope that participants and guests of the tournament will be satisfied with the quality and organization of the competitions in one of the most beautiful cities of the world and will have wonderful impression about Russia.

I would like to thank the International Judo Federation and personally its President, Mr. Marius L. Vizer, for the trust to RJF. I wish him further success in developing a large and united judo family!
