The Hague GRAND PRIX 2018 Netherlands

The IJF returns to the Netherlands in November for the second edition of The Hague Grand Prix.

The Netherlands is one of judo's most important and successful nations and their trailblazing results dating back to the 60s and domestic efforts have been key factors in the global development of our sport.

IJF World Judo Tour competition returned to the Netherlands a year ago and we are confident of the 2018 instalment building on the success of last year.

I would like to thank The Hague, the Dutch Judo Federation and all our partners and sponsors for their continued support.

I wish good luck to all judoka, coaches, officials, staff and volunteers and look forward to seeing judo's moral code being displayed by all those in attendance.

16-18 November 2018

Dear Judoka, Officials

It is with great pleasure that we have the honour to invite you to The Hague for the 2018 Grand Prix. The Dutch Judo Federation is very proud to be part of the IUF World Tour towards the Olympic Games in 2020.

We would like to especially thank the IUF and host-city The Hague, the international city of peace and justice. The Hague is the seat of the Dutch government, parliament, the Supreme Court, and the Council of State and has a lot to offer.

The Hague has vast ambitions to host international sport events. In 2014 the city hosted the world championships field hockey, in 2015 the world championships beach volleyball and in June 2018 the Volvo Ocean Race finishes on its beaches.

The Grand Prix will be held in the brand-new Sportcampus Zuiderpark. This outstanding venue will provide excellent facilities for athletes and coaches. We were happy to have welcomed thousands of spectators to the first edition in 2017.

We are determined to organize a perfect and exciting event for athletes, coaches and spectators. We look forward to meet you in The Hague!
