Cancun GRAND PRIX 2018 Mexico

 @MariusVizer

The IJF is looking forward to returning to the tropical vacation city of Cancun, Mexico, in October for a true judo festival.

Mexico hosted its first ever Grand Prix last year in Cancun following a fantastic edition of the World Judo Masters in Guadalajara in 2016

The second edition of the Cancun Grand Prix marks a historic month for Mexican judo as the IJF will remain in the city to stage the Kata World Championships and Veteran World Championships.

The Mexican Judo Federation are gaining more experience and becoming increasingly competent in hosting IJF World Judo Tour events which all leave a legacy in the country.

I wish everyone a wonderful stay in Mexico and a successful competition. The IJF team will be at your disposal for the duration of your time in Cancun.
