Zagreb GRAND PRIX 2018 Croatia

 @MariusVizer

Dear participants of the Judo Grand Prix, Zagreb 2017, we look forward to welcoming you to the sixth annual edition of the IJF Grand Prix in Croatia from 27 – 29 July.

Following the respective continental championships and the Hohhot Grand Prix, the IJF World Judo Tour is back in Europe to visit the familiar location of Zagreb for three days of world-class action.

Croatia's leg of the IJF World Judo Tour is the penultimate competition before September's World Championships in Baku and points and wins will be up for grabs with plenty of time to impact the ranking list and seeded judoka for Azerbaijan.

In 2017 the Croatian Judo Federation were the first winners of the IJF Best Development of a National Federation Award. Our hosts in July thoroughly deserve their success and recognition as a very professional and capable national federation.

I wish good luck to all the delegations present in Croatia and send my best wishes to the Croatian Judo Federation who are ready to welcome the world to Zagreb.

Marius L. VIZER
President
International Judo Federation

27-29 July 2018

Dear judo friends,

It is a great pleasure and honour for Croatian Judo Federation to be a part of IJF World Tour and organize Judo Grand Prix Zagreb 2018.

Grand Prix tournaments are always judo events where the best judo matches can be seen and where new role models for young judokas are born. But besides competition part, GPs give possibility for judo community to meet and exchange ideas for development of judo. The hosts have possibility to make positive sport atmosphere where competitors and all judo officials would feel motivated to give and show the best.

I do believe that Croatian Judo Federation with the experience of hosting many international judo events would use this possibility and, once again, create one memorable judo experience and promote our city – Zagreb, and our sport – judo, all over the world.

To achieve this task, we need support and help of our sponsors and many volunteers and I would like to take this opportunity to thank them all. Our gratitude always goes to the IJF president, Mr. Marius Vizer for giving us motivation to always be better.

I wish all participants to experience the city of Zagreb and to all the athletes – the best of luck!

Sanda ČORAK
President
Croatian Judo Federation
