

Criteria for grant of support for development activities to IJF Member countries

PREAMBLE

In order to assist its member national federations to develop and improve the judo activity in their countries, the International Judo Federation is committed to support the National Federations with various means.

CONDITIONS

- The National Federation must be a duly affiliated member of the IJF, with a number of at least 5 clubs as members.
- The National Federation must submit an official request to the IJF, mentioning the type of aid needed.
- The National Federation must describe in detail the objectives of the requested support and the way it is going to be used, by all means showing that the greater aim is the promotion of judo.
- The National Federation must appoint a dedicated person with contact details, who will be responsible and liaison with the IJF.

TYPES OF SUPPORT

- Participation to competitions and training camps, participation to seminars
- Financial support for completion of projects (previously evaluated by IJF)
- Equipment support
- Development programs (Judo for Children, Judo in Schools, Military and Police, IJF Academy, Judo for Peace, Education Tour or other IJF programs)

POSSIBLE OBJECTIVES

- Promotion of judo for raising awareness and number of practitioners
- Improvement of current level of elite athletes by gaining experience
- Ensuring a proper environment and conditions for carrying out judo activities
- Spreading the judo values in society and contributing to the general development of the civil society
- Contributing to the education of youth
- Offering post-career education to judokas
- Raising awareness and solving conflicts in areas confronted with such issues
- Integrating judo into a multitude of social layers and groups
- Other objectives (to be detailed and submitted for consideration to IJF)

REPORTING

Depending on the type of support and activity, IJF will require the designated contact person to submit one or periodic reports, containing proof of use of the support, various outcome-related data, a brief description of the activities and supporting materials such as press articles, photos, videos etc. IJF shall use the provided information for evaluation of the projects and shall publish them on the IJF website for enhanced visibility and exemplification of these common initiatives.
