JUDOBASE

WELCOME FROM THE PRESIDENT OF THE PAN AMERICAN JUDO CONFEDERATION

Dear Judokas of the Americas, it is an honor for me to be able to speak to you, to extend my warmest greetings on behalf of the Pan American Judo Confederation (PJC). At the same time, on this occasion, I would like to invite you to participate in the 2021 Pan American Championship, in the Cadets and Junior categories, to be held on August 13 and 14, in Cali, Colombia.

PJC, following the example of the International Judo Federation (IJF), has been working hard to comply with and ensure biosafety protocols, which guarantee proper competitive exercise for the benefit of our athletes.

In addition, this will be the last qualifying event for the Junior Pan American Games, also to be held in Cali.

I wish with all my heart that Pan American Judo can meet again at this important event, and that our community can enjoy our beloved sport, in optimal conditions.

I do not want to miss the opportunity to thank the Colombian Judo Federation, as well as all the Colombian authorities, convinced of their commitment to Pan American Judo.

Carlos Zegarra Presser

President
Pan American Judo Confederation

WELCOME FROM THE PRESIDENT OF THE SOUTH AMERICAN JUDO CONFEDERATION

Dear South American Judocas,

It is my pleasure to greet you on behalf of the South American Judo Confederation (SJC). and invite them to participate in the 2021 South American Championship, in the Cadets and Junior categories, to be held on August 15, in Cali, Colombia.

The SJC and PJC, following the example of the International Judo Federation (IJF), have been working hard to comply with and ensure biosafety protocols, which guarantee due competitive exercise for the benefit of our athletes.

It is my wishes that the Judo of South America meet again at this important sporting event, in an optimal security framework, which guarantees the normal development of our sport.

In addition, I want to thank the Colombian Judo Federation, as well as all the authorities of Colombia, and the Judo family of that beautiful country.

The South American Confederation awaits you with a hug of brotherhood.

Oscar O. Cassinerio
President
South American Judo Confederation

7. INSURANCE

Each National Federation is responsible for its competitors. Both the Non-Pregnancy control and the gender control are under your responsibility.

The Federations must assume all responsibility for accident and illness insurance and for civil liabilities of their competitors and officials during their entire stay in Colombia. The tournament organization and the Colombian Judo Federation will not be responsible for any insurance related to the aforementioned matters.

Within the competition arena, the organization will have primary emergency care and an ambulance for transfer to a hospital facility if required.

All subsequent or extraordinary medical care, such as injury and / or illness that requires hospitalization, treatments, surgical interventions and medications, will be assumed, in terms of costs, by the federation of each country. Therefore, all the delegations and participating judokas will exempt the Colombian Judo Federation and its respective organizing committee from responsibility for any mishap, injury, accident, illness or death that may arise inside or outside the competition venue or on related trips and transfers. to this event.

See the information and protocol in relation to COVID-19 attached to this document.

8. HOTELS

Following the protocol related to the protection of all participants explained below, any person who leaves the "bubble" of the health protocol will not be admitted again to be part of the delegation. Please read carefully the protocol that you will find later.

Hotel reservations can only be made only through the organization of the championship. Due to biosecurity measures, the participation of delegations outside the official accommodation will not be accepted. They will only be able to enter the hotel and delegations that arrive by official transport, and have been pre-accredited at the airport upon arrival of the flight from their country of origin.

All rates are per person per night and include: accommodation, food (breakfast, lunch and dinner), transportation from the airport to the Hotel round trip, from the Hotel to the competition place round trip.

- The IJF back number should be set horizontally and centered on the judogi's back. It should be 3 cm below the lower part of the neck.
- The backup number can be requested at www.ijfbacknumber.com or www.mybacknumber.com
- The backnumber is the responsibility of each Federation..

17. COACH

The code of conduct for coaches will be strictly observed, including the dress code of the International Judo Federation:

- Draw: formal suit (jacket, pants, shirt, and tie for men; jacket, pants / skirt / dress, blouse for women) and formal shoes (no sports shoes or sandals).
- Preliminary rounds: national sweatshirt with pants that reach up to the shoes. Coaches may wear official national short- or long-sleeved shirts and sports shoes (no sandals).
- For the final block: formal suit (jacket, pants, shirt, and tie for men; jacket, pants / skirt / dress, blouse for women) and formal shoes (no sports shoes or sandals).

Coaches are not allowed to give directions to competitors while they are fighting. Only during the MATE breaks will coaches be allowed to give directions to their athletes. After the pause and when the fight continues, the coach must be silent again.

If a coach gives directions during the match, he/she receives a first warning. In case of recurrence, he will be excluded from the competition area. Any attitude contrary to the spirit of judo will be penalized.

If a coach does not respect these rules, he/she can be expelled from the competition area. If the coach persists in his behavior from outside the competition area, he may be penalized and expelled from the sports arena.

18. DOPING CONTROL

- It is important that each delegation knows the doping control protocol.
- The controls will be carried out in accordance with the Anti-Doping Rules and the Organization and Sport Regulations of the IJF, before concluding the final block.
- Competitors must report to the doping control station immediately after signing the notification form. In accordance with WADA ISTI Art. 5.4.4, before doping control, athletes can participate in the award ceremony and fulfill their press commitments or receive medical treatment if necessary.
- The selected competitors will be constantly accompanied by an official companion (designated by the organizing committee) from the moment of notification until their arrival at the Doping Control Station. A person of the athlete's choice (team doctor, coach, physical trainer, head of delegation, etc.) may accompany them.

19. TRAINING

The training schedules must be requested by the head of delegation at the time of accreditation.

20. INTERNAL LAND TRANSPORTATION

24. COVID-19 PROTOCOL IN FORCE AT THE EVENT

On behalf of the Colombian Judo Federation and the Pan American Judo Confederation (CPJ), we would like to share with you this general information related to the COVID-19 security protocol that will be used in the Pan American Cadet Championship, Junior Pan American Championship and South American Championship. Cadete & Junior, which will take place in the city of Cali, Colombia from August 11-15 2021

Below, you will find a basic summary of the most important points for each of the delegations. Please take into account and put action on each of these points.

The organizers of this event will use the concept of a "Bubble" and everyone who participates in this event be it athletes, coaches, administrators, officials, guests, referees or staff, will be included and placed in this protective bubble. There will be no exceptions to being part of the bubble and any deviation from the rules will automatically make the group ineligible to participate in this event. Please read the information below carefully and ask any questions before arriving at the event.

It is the responsibility of each National Federation (NF) that participates and that a delegation enters this event to explain these rules and guidelines to its members and it is

The National Federation is responsible for ensuring that the members of its delegation follow and respect each of these rules and guidelines.

1. Only the official members of each delegation will be able to be inside the bubble of this event.
2. The bubble of this event will include official transportation to and from the airport; parts of the property of the hotel headquarters; all food areas; all athlete accommodation floors, all practice, warm-up and competition areas.
3. Only the official members of the delegations with the corresponding accreditations issued by the organizers may enter the competition venue, there will be no exceptions.
4. Before the departure of each delegation from their countries, the organizers will provide a form issued by the government (<https://apps.migracioncolombia.gov.co/pre-registro/public/preregistro.jsf>) that must be completed before get to immigration in Colombia. Each traveling member of the delegation must have this completed form on arrival for the immigration authorities in Colombia.
5. *According to the COVID IJF protocol, all members of the delegation upon arrival in Colombia must have with them two negative results of the PCR test no more than 08 days before their arrival in Cali, with a minimum difference of 48 hours between them. . Likewise, it must be considered that the Colombian government CURRENTLY REQUIRES A NEGATIVE RESULT PCR WITH A MAXIMUM OF 96 HOURS BETWEEN THE TAKING OF THE SAMPLE AND THE ARRIVAL IN COLOMBIA.
6. At the Airport, all members of the delegation must wear a mask and face shield at all times.
7. Upon arrival and departure from Immigration / Customs at the Cali airport, each delegation will be received by members of the organizing committee trained in the application of this protocol, and the members of the delegation will be placed in special transport vehicles to be taken to the host hotel. Once inside the official transport vehicle, the delegation is now considered to be inside the event bubble.

8. Upon arrival at the hotel, the Head of Mission of the delegation will meet with the organizers to process all the paperwork and secure the keys to the rooms of the members of their delegation. Having received the keys to the rooms, the members of the delegations must go to them to carry out their quarantine. The PCR tests will be carried out upon arrival at the official hotel, the results will take a maximum of 36 hours. All participants must have previously filled out the epidemiological form on the page <https://asoclinic.com/covid-19/> in order to take the tests at the hotel.

9. Upon arrival of the negative results of the PCR tests performed, a member of the organization will proceed to change the tape (from red to green) to the members of the delegation, it is not allowed to remove the tape. At this point in the protocol, members of the delegations can only move inside the event bubble and cannot leave the bubble compound until they return to the airport for their departure.

10. Meal times will be allocated so that only a certain number of people eat at the same time in the cafeteria / restaurant. The schedules will be published and it is expected that they will be maintained and respected. Before entering the dining room, the temperature of each person will be controlled.

11. If during the course of the competition dates, or the stay of the individual member of the delegation, a person begins to feel ill or develops any symptoms of concern, the person will be immediately transferred to a floor dedicated to the "surveillance of health" where they will be quarantined to see if more symptoms develop. These rooms and the floor where these people would stay are out of the reach of anyone other than the health authority. The rooms will be for individual use and all meals will be served in the room following the appropriate protocols. It will be the National Federation of the affected person, the responsibility to pay for this extra room if necessary.

12. All NFs must clearly understand that all members of the delegation must have health insurance and COVID-19 insurance, each NF is responsible for all costs related to the medical treatment of all members of the delegation. Neither the organizers, nor the Colombian Judo Federation nor the Pan American Judo Confederation assume any related responsibility with the cost of any medical treatment for each member of the delegation.

13. At the competition venue, we ask each delegation to keep a safe distance between them. Only athletes competing that day may be in the competition warm-up area. Once at the competition venue and given that the venue is large enough, we ask each delegation to keep a safe distance between them in the stands. Only athletes competing that day may be in the competition warm-up area.

14. We will follow all other protocols within the competition venue as issued within the IJF protocol document that has been sent to all National Federations and that is attached to this entry package.

15. If a new PCR is required for their return to their country, the participating delegation must pay USD 75 per test.
