He wishes everyone health and safety, and thanks for the attention.

8.4 Report of the IJF Official Auditor (PWC Hungary)

Ms. SÁVOLY-HATTA

Complete presentation can be found in Annex 7.

On behalf of PWC, Ms. SÁVOLY-HATTA thanks the IJF for having the opportunity to serve as the IJF official auditor.

2020 was really unprecedented year for the International Judo Federation, not only because of the Covid 19 pandemic and its consequences, but also due to the change of its headquarters from Lausanne to Budapest. The transition process was supported by PWC tax and legal team, by identifying relevant laws and regulation, statutory reporting requirements. Accounting advisory team was ensuring transparency and comparability of previous year financial statements. Finally, the audit of the FY 2020 was conducted.

The process was truly a team work between relevant teams of the IJF and PWC. Ms. SÁVOLY-HATTA thanks Mr. KUN and his team for their collaboration.

Ms. SÁVOLY-HATTA declares that the financial statements give a true and fair view of the financial position of the Federation as at 31 December 2020, and of the results of its operations for the year then ended in accordance with the provisions of Act C of 2000 on Accounting ("Accounting Act"), in force in Hungary.

She thanks everybody and wishes successful World Judo championships in Budapest.

Mr. VIZER thanks the delegates for the trust, support, collaboration and approval of the fourth resolution.

9.1. Candidate's presentation

Mr. VIZER declares that it was an honor and pleasure to work during all this period for judo development, for its promotion, ensuring for the next generations peace, unity and friendship in the world. Unity is one of the most important pillars of stability and development. During all this difficult period, Judo family shows unity and solidarity for the benefit of our organization, by organizing with continuity judo events.

During all this period, we have significantly improved judo level, judo values and promotion of judo in the world. We have partners which trust us: media, advertising partners, international institutions, the IOC.

The place of judo among other Olympic spots is stable and safe, thanks to the efforts of everyone and our common achievements. For the first time ever, we will have the team event, starting from Tokyo Olympic Games. We will have 11 teams in Tokyo, as well as a Refugee team. It is a great honor and we can be proud of this achievement. It is a proof of trust and credibility from the IOC to our judo family. We increased the media value of our sport, so we have sponsors and partners who trust our sport. Our sport is a solid one. It is the third sport in the field of universality for the Olympic Games (after athletics and swimming).

This is the result of your work and seriousness. All the National Federations who achieve results during the World Championships and the Olympic Games are the locomotive of judo. Mr. VIZER hopes that we will see more and more countries represented on the podium, bringing even higher the judo image.

Mr. VIZER continues saying that the IJF World Judo Tour started many years ago, offering another standard and level of competition, offering prize money for the athletes, according to IJF possibilities and opportunities.

Mr. VIZER is convinced that for the next 4 years, together we will make judo better, will increase our popularity and our strength in social media, our media value, we will organize more events and register more National Federations. He hopes that through the stability within the IJF, the Continental Unions and the National Federations, with unity, trust, solidarity and respect, we can continue to bring judo in a good way.

Mr. VIZER wants to thank his colleagues who leave the IJF, while staying with the judo family. He wants to wish success to the new comers, to work together with enthusiasm, optimism and the engine of the new generation. Mr. VIZER conclude by wishing everybody successful World Championships and Olympic Games.

Complete presentation can be found in Annex 13.

Mr. AL-ANZI concludes his presentation by warmly thanking Mr. President for his strong leaderships and solid support.

He also thanks Mr. VIZER on behalf of the JUA for combining the Judo Union of Asia with the Oceania Judo Union for Continental Judo Championships which represents a considerable help to both Continental Unions and allows to make events more competitive.

Mr. VIZER congratulates and thanks Mr. AL ANZI for his presentation and his collaboration.

12.3 Report of the European Judo Union President

Mr. SOLOVEYCHIK

Mr. SOLOVEYCHIK starts his presentation by congratulating Mr. VIZER, on behalf of the EJU and himself, for his election. He thanks Mr. VIZER for his professionalism and for development of our favorite sport. Mr. SOLOVEYCHIK wishes Mr. VIZER successful continuation. He also congratulates the newly elected members of the IJF Executive Committee.

Mr. SOLOVEYCHIK thanks his colleagues from the EJU Board, the Presidents of the National federations for their perfect collaboration, before the Covid period, but especially during this period. He says that this difficult period did not stop us, we are not frozen, we did a lot, we kept in touch, we were connected with National Federations. The EJU organized meetings and seminars, did a great work and demonstrated to everybody that the World Judo is active even in this period. The EJU had many activities and restored the calendar events. In November-December, 3 European Championships were organized. Two of these events were organized in Croatia. Mr. SOLOVEYCHIK warmly thanks the President of the Croatian Judo Federation, Dr. CORAK and her team for their courage. The Seniors Championships were organized in Czech Republic. Mr. SOLOVEYCHIK thanks the President of the Czech Judo Federation Mr. DOLEJS, for his devotion to judo, as well as his team. The calendar for the next Olympic cycle is established and Mr. SOLOVEYCHIK is convinced that all EJU events will be successfully organized.

In Education sector during the difficult period, a strategy and theoretical part of the two new projects were created: European Judo School League and European Youth League. The EJU has already started these projects in some pilot countries. Mr. SOLOVEYCHIK thanks the Presidents of the concerned National Federations of Spain, Bulgaria, Ukraine, Portugal and Russia for their initiative. They proved that all is possible even in such a difficult period.

In marketing during this period, a new strategy was prepared. The EJU has new sponsors, new partners and suppliers.

Mr. SOLOVEYCHIK thanks all his colleagues, Board members and EJU National Federations. He thanks the IJF for the great example they demonstrated, first when the IJF restarted the WJT events with Budapest Grand Slam. All further events and projects became possible with this example.

Mr. SOLOVEYCHIK wishes everybody good health and strong judo activity.

He finishes his presentation by showing a video. The video can be found in Annex 14.

Mr. VIZER congratulates Mr. SOLOVEYCHIK for his successful work and presentation.

12.4 Report of the Oceania Judo Union President

Mr. DAVIO, OJU President, being excused for medical reason, the report is presented by Mr. Josateki NAULU (OJU Technical Director).

Mr. NAULU presents himself. He starts the report of the OJU activities by underlining the resilience and the determination of the IJF and all judoka who continued to be focused on judo activities despite the complexities they have faced.

Complete presentation of the OJU activities can be found in Annex 15.

Mr. VIZER thanks Mr. NAULU and wishes good health and quick recovery to the OJU President Rehia DAVIO.

12.5 Report of the Pan America Judo Confederation President:

Mr. LARRANAGA/Mr. ZEGARRA

Mr. LARRANAGA greets Mr. VIZER, his colleagues and Congress delegates.

He explains that he had been leading the Pan-American Judo Confederation for 7 years. However, the time of change has come. During the PJC elections that took place on 26 May 2021 the new President, Mr. Carlos ZEGARRA was elected.

Mr. LARRANAGA passes the floor to Mr. ZEGARRA to present the report of the PJC activities.

Mr. VIZER thanks and congratulates Mr. LARRANAGA.

Mr. ZEGARRA warmly thanks Mr. LARRANAGA and says it is a great honor to present this report in his quality of new PJC President.

Mr. ZEGARRA highlights that during the pandemic period, the PJC Executive led a reflection on how to continue judo activities in Pan-American continent. The decision was made to launch an innovation programme in order to stay in touch with all the Pan-American members and the result was very successful.

Complete presentation of all the PJC activities can be found in Annex 16.

Mr. ZEGARRA finishes his presentation by thanking again Mr. LARRANAGA for his work and his leadership. He is delighted that the recent PJC elections were held in a very democratic and peaceful way.

Mr. VIZER thanks and congratulates Mr. ZEGARRA.

Point 13. General Secretariat information

General Secretary Mr. ROUGÉ

Mr. ROUGÉ informs that the IJF strongly recommends the below statutory provision for Member National Federations and Continental Unions:

Gender representation in the governing bodies of member National Federations and Continental Unions should be at least 25% for the least represented gender.

No remarks from the delegates.

Point 14. Propositions from the Continental Unions and member National Federations

14.1 Chad

Mr. ROUGE informs that a question was received from the Chad Judo Federation. This question is considered to be an internal matter of the AJU and should be handled by the new AJU President.

Point 15. Distinctions

President Mr. VIZER

Mr. BARCOS, Mr. LARRANAGA, Mr. BENONE and Mr. SISSOKO received a special Jigoro Kano statue, designed by IJF partner Herend Porcelain, from Mr. VIZER to celebrate the amazing amount of work they delivered over the past years.

Point 16. Closing of the Congress

President Mr. VIZER

Mr. VIZER informs about the following changes in the IJF Executive Committee:

Mr. BAGDASAROV, IJF Sport Director, will join the IJF Refereeing Commission. Following Mr. BAGDASAROV function change, it became necessary to reinforce the IJF Sport Commission. Mr. VIZER will propose during the next Executive Committee meeting to co-opt two Sport Directors: Mr. TAMURA (Canadian Judo Federation) and Mr. HACHICHA (Tunisia Judo Federation).

Mr. VIZER welcomes the new members.

Mr. VIZER closes the Congress by thanking all the persons who serve judo during all these years.

The agenda being exhausted, the Congress is closed at 13:00.
