WORDS OF WELCOME

Sergey Soloveychik
President
European Judo Union

Dear Judo Friends,

It gives me great pleasure to welcome participating teams, officials and spectators to this edition of the European Championships Mixed Team event being staged in Russia in the city of Ufa.

Team events are renowned for producing moments of high drama, incredible excitement and spectacular performances. The EJU has a long and distinguished history of staging such events and these championships demonstrate the EJU's commitment to ensuring that as many judoka as possible have an opportunity to compete at European championship level.

I want to thank the Russian Judo Federation for its continued support and in particular the regional government of Bashkortostan for its readiness to host this important event at high level.

We are all aware of the need to continue to follow the safety protocols that will allow us to stage a safe and successful event and, with this in mind, I wish you all a happy, healthy and enjoyable visit to Ufa.

Vasily Anisimov
President
Russian Judo Federation

Dear friends!

I am glad to welcome you to Ufa at European Mixed Team Championships.

We are sincerely proud that in 2018 it was entrusted to the Russian Federation to host the first ever Team Championships of the Old World in a mixed format. Three years later, this spectacular and dynamic tournament returns to our country. The conducting of these competitions was preceded by a lot of work. I am sure that the Championships will be held at the highest organizational level.

I am sincerely glad that team judo is gaining more and more popularity in the world. Such competitions are liked by the audience - they are always accompanied by intrigue and a twisted plot. In turn, fighting for a national team gives athletes an opportunity to feel like a united team and cheer for their comrades even more sincerely than usual.

This year, the team tournament successfully debuted at the Olympic Games and was held for the third time as a part of the World Championships. Today, every start of this kind is an important step on the way to the Olympic Paris.

On the Ufa's tatami we will see a spectacular and honest fight, genuine emotions and the joy of hard-won victories. I wish all the participants to demonstrate their best judo, which the audience will definitely like
