Paris Grand Slam, France 04 - 05 February 2023

@MariusVizer

Welcome to Paris and to the first grand slam of 2023.

The Paris Grand Slam always serves as a catalyst for the highest level of judo, the biggest surprises and a show of intentions for the period ahead, from nations of all continents. It is spectacular, it is energising and it is also an event at which the whole judo family feels comfortable, at home.

With the 2024 Olympic Games scheduled for the summer of 2024, in France's capital, every arrival in Paris comes with extra intensity and anticipation. This Olympic qualification period is already well under way and that brings an extra dimension to the Bercy.

Paris offers all visitors a special immersion into French culture and history. The Bercy delivers the most special immersion into elite judo culture and also makes all judoka feel part of a new history of our very special sport. It is always a tournament not to be missed!

I wish all participants and organisers a safe and successful return to Paris and thank the judo family for their continued adherence to our core values. Paris is always an exciting reward for the hard work that is ongoing.

Yours in judo.

Marius L. VIZER
President
International Judo Federation

Paris Grand Slam, France 04 - 05 February 2023

Dear judokas,
Dear friends,

After a busy season with the World Championships in Tashkent, the French Championships in Toulon, the European Mixed Team Championships in Mulhouse, and the first exciting edition of the Judo Pro League, we are gathered again for this world event, the Paris Grand Slam 2023.

This edition opens the year 2023 with an international competition in Paris. As you know, each competition is a preparation for Paris 2024. We hope that the entire French team will be present.

The Paris Grand Slam is one of the central events for the best judokas from all over the world who come to defend their title; I would like to thank all the athletes, all the managers and all the delegations who are present for this important event of the sports calendar.

I would like to thank the International Judo Federation and its President Mr Marius VIZER for the confidence given to France in this organization, and for the quality of all the competitions it organizes throughout the world.

I also thank all the elected officials of the Federation, the employees, the volunteers, the judges, and the referees for their unfailing commitment to make judo shine.

I wish all the participants of this edition, which brings us closer to Paris 2024, athletes, managers, spectators, TV audience and partners, volunteers and Judo lovers, a superb Paris Grand Slam!
