COMPETITION RULES

WORDS OF WELCOME

Dear Judo Family and Friends,

Let me welcome you to Pristina, where one of the most unique events is going to take place in a few weeks, which is something the judo-loving nation takes a great deal of pride in, and understandably so. The European Judo Championships Open will give an excellent occasion for every attending judoka to show their skills and fight for the grand prize as well.

All of you who participate in this competition have come this far through a lot of training, self-discipline, patience, and perseverance. This is a milestone for many of you, as the results achieved here reflect the hard work you have put in, the diligent effort of the coaches as well as the technical team, and the supportive love and encouragement of your family. You will soon step onto the tatami to show your skills, and finally, the continent's most successful judoka will receive the deserved recognition and the coveted title of the Open European Champion.

With all that in mind, I wish all the participants and their coaches an unforgettable and joyful experience that will become a great platform for their future success. I am also wishing the best to all the officials, volunteers, staff, and everyone involved in the event. I would also like to express my sincerest appreciation for everyone who made this possible, so we can make history in Kosovo.

Yours in judo.
