STATUTES

Preamble:

Judo was created in 1882 by Professor Jigoro KANO. As an educational method derived from the martial arts, judo became an official Olympic sport in 1964. Judo is a highly codified sport in which the mind controls the expression of the body and is a sport which contributes to educating individuals.

Beyond competitions and combat, judo involves technical research, practice of katas, self-defence work, physical preparation and sharpening of spirit.

As a discipline derived from ancestral traditions, judo was designed by its Master Founder as an eminently modern and progressive activity.

The AJU statutes shall comply with Statutes proposed and approved by the IJF, while remaining consistent with the laws of the country of incorporation.

Article 1 – Definitions

1.1. Statutes

The “Statutes” shall mean all provisions contained in this document, which have been duly approved, with any addendums and /or appendices which may complete, amend or substitute for this document. The preamble constitutes an integral part hereof. These statutes replace the previous statutes.

1.2. AJU

The African Judo Union (hereinafter referred to as the “AJU”) is made up of National Federations of the African continent. The African Judo Union is a non-profit organization. The AJU by its associative status acts in an independent manner in accordance with the principle of autonomy. The liability of the African Judo Union as a member is limited. The AJU is one of the five Continental Unions forming the IJF. This Union is a member of IJF and shall respect the IJF statutes, regulations and guidelines.

The African Judo Union is composed of the National Federations of the African continent, except when a special derogation has been granted by the IJF EC.

The AJU being a member of the IJF, who is a member of the Olympic Movement, considers adherence to fundamental, universal ethical principles to be the foundation of sport, of judo, and of Olympism.

These principles include:

1.2.1 Respect for the Olympic spirit, which requires mutual understanding and a spirit of friendship, solidarity, and fair play;

1.2.2 Respect for the principle of universality and political neutrality of the AJU and of the Olympic Movement;

1.2.3 Maintenance of harmonious relations with government authorities while respecting the principle of autonomy as defined in the Olympic Charter;

1.2.4 Respect for international agreements for the protection of human rights as they apply to the activities of the AJU and its members and which ensure, in particular:

- protecting the dignity of people;
- rejection of all forms of discrimination, no matter the reason, in particular related to race, colour, sex, sexual orientation, language, religion, political or other opinions, national or social origin, wealth, birth, or any other situation;
- rejection of all forms of physical, professional, or sexual harassment and abuse, and of all practices that are detrimental to the physical or mental integrity of a person.

1.2.5 Maintaining conditions for the safety and well-being of participants and for medical care to maintain their physical and mental well-being.

1.3 National Federation

The term “National Federation” shall refer to a member of the AJU

The liability of National Federations as members of the AJU is limited.

All National Federations are committed to contributing to the assets of the AJU

In the event of the liquidation of the AJU, all National Federations which are members at that time agree to pay the debts and liabilities of the AJU contracted before they cease to be members, as well as the costs, charges and expenses of winding up. Such amounts as may be required must not exceed ten Euros (10 €).

1.4 Country

A “Country” shall mean an independent State recognized by the international community and which has a flag and a national anthem.

1.5 President

The term “President” shall mean the President of the AJU

1.6 Chairman

The term “Chairman” shall mean the Chairman of the AJU

1.7 General Secretary

The term “General Secretary” shall mean the General Secretary of the AJU

1.8 General Treasurer

The term “General Treasurer” shall mean the General Treasurer of the AJU

1.9 Vice-presidents

The term “Vice-presidents” shall mean the 1st and 2nd Vice-president of the AJU

1.10. Director

The term “Director” shall mean one of the Directors of the AJU

1.11 Directing Committee

The term “DC.” shall mean the Directing Committee of the AJU.

1.12. Executive

The term “EC.” shall mean the Executive Committee of the AJU

1.13 Congress

“Congress” shall mean the Congress of the AJU. It can be held on an ordinary or an extraordinary basis.

1.14 General Headquarters

The “General Headquarters” shall refer to the administrative headquarters of the AJU where the administrative tasks of the AJU are performed, the locations of which shall be decided by the President to the Executive.

1.15 Head Office

The “Head Office” shall refer to the registered head office of the AJU, the location of which shall be decided by the Executive Committee.

Article 2 – Aims

The AJU has the following aims, without this constituting an exhaustive list:

- To implement the IJF and relevant IOC policy in Africa.
- To promote cordial and friendly relations between its members and to lead and organise judo activities throughout Africa.
- To protect the interests of judo throughout the African continent.
- Organise Continental events, to supervise where necessary events organised by its members and to participate in the organization of qualifying continental events for the Olympic Games.
- To develop the practice of judo throughout the African Continent for all the categories of the population.
- To improve the quality of judo training and the safety of its practice.
- To supervise the awarding of grades, including “dan” ranks, and their compliance with IJF rules.
- To promote the ideals and objectives behind the Olympic movement.
- To represent the African Judo Union before third parties and to arbitrate in any possible disagreements between Member National Federations.

Article 3 - Structure

3.1 Composition of the African Judo Union

The African Judo Union is composed of Member National Federations that are in its territory or are validated by way of derogation on its territory by the IJF.

The AJU has the possibility to create geographical zones with specific regulations approved by the DC of the AJU. These zones must respect both the AJU and the IJF statutes, regulations and guidelines.

3.2 Statutes of Member Federations

The statutes and Regulations of Member National Federations must be in compliance with the IJF and AJU statutes and all other regulations and decisions of the IJF and the African Judo Union as well as with the principles of the Olympic Charter. The election of the members of the Executive and Directing Committees must comply with the same principles.

The dates and places of AJU congresses shall be communicated to IJF EC. one hundred and eighty (180) days before these congresses are held.

The AJU must provide any information concerning its operations and activities in Africa that has been requested by IJF. The AJU has the right to request any information connected with the activities of any AJU Member National Federation, this information must be provided on request.

3.3 Auditing of the use of funds

AJU may audit National Federations' use of funds originated from the AJU. For this purpose the accounts shall be sent every year to the General Treasurer and shall be made available permanently to the auditors appointed by the AJU.

3.4 Awards

Any National Federation that hosts a competition for which awards will be presented in the form of prize money or any other reward must, on the first hand inform the AJU on the origin of the funding allowing the award of this prize or reward, and on the other hand accept that the AJU assesses and controls the good faith of this declaration.

3.5 Communication of Information

The National Federations shall communicate to the AJU: the agenda and the minutes of their ordinary and extraordinary congresses.

The National Federations shall submit and annual report on all activities and the development of Judo in their countries to the AJU. This report must indicate the number of judokas and clubs per federation, the number of black belts.

Article 4 – Membership

4.1 Application for membership

Only one federation per country may become a member of the IJF and the AJU.

If two or more Federations within a same country claim representation, membership in the AJU will be given to the Federation which is recognized by its National Olympic Committee or by the highest sporting organisation of that country.

4.2 Procedure

African Judo Union

Original text in French

Any National Federation that wishes to join the AJU and the IJF must apply for membership in writing to the IJF General Secretary with a copy to the AJU General Secretary.

The statutes of the National Federation must mandatorily be attached to the membership application and must absolutely state that this National Federation agrees to comply with the Statutes and all the regulations and decisions of the IJF and the AJU.

A reasoned opinion from the AJU must also be sent to IJF General Secretary with the membership application. The AJU Executive Committee will examine the application and together with the IJF EC approve the candidacy.

Associated Member:

Associated Membership in the AJU may be granted in the case of a territory which is a department of a country whose National Judo Federation is already a member of the IJF, through the offices of another Continental Union. This Associated Membership, subject to the payment of the annual fees prescribed by the AJU, shall entitle the Associated Member Federation to engage in all AJU activities but shall not include the right to vote as a member Federation at the IJF Congress.

The points scored on the ranking list on this occasion will be attributed to the member federation and to the National Olympic Committee they depend on for the Olympic selections.

4.3 Defence of federations

4.3.1 The AJU is dedicated to defending Member Federations from all attacks on democracy against the federations in the area of federal elections and the participation in competitions.

AJU Member Federations that are not members of their NOC shall apply for affiliation to the NOC of their country or to the highest sporting authority of that country.

4.3.2.

- *AJU National Member Federations may only be composed of associations (clubs), or associative, private, social, school or state structures exclusively engaged in judo activities, unless otherwise provided by the mandatory rules applicable to the National member Federation.
- These particular cases will be dealt with by the AJU Executive Committee and submitted to IJF for approval.
- Transitional provision: National Federations have a maximum of 2 years (05 September 2025) to comply with this provision.
- AJU Member Federations may not be affiliated to another International Federation.

- The policy, administration and management of AJU can only be decided by its internal bodies (Directing Committee, Executive Committee, Congress) provided for in this Statutes approved by its member Federations.

Article 5 – Participation in competitions and medical Codes

5.1 Athletes' right to participate

To be eligible to participate in the Olympic Games, World Championships, Continental Championships International Championships and competitions held under the supervision of or recognized by the IJF, a judoka must comply with the rules of the IJF and the IOC. In particular, they must adhere to the IJF code of ethics and anti-doping regulations, regulations to prevent the manipulation of competitions, and regulations regarding sports betting.

5.2 Anti-doping

The AJU shall comply with Olympic Movement Medical Code and the World Anti-doping Code.

5.3 Prevention of manipulation of competitions

Participants in international competitions and organised competitions under the control of or recognized by the IJF and AJU must not, in any way whatsoever, manipulate the proceedings or results of all or part of a competition in a way that runs contrary to sports ethics, infringe on the principle of fair play, or act in a non-sporting manner.

Article 6 - Official languages

6.1 Official languages

The official languages of the African Judo Union are French, English and Arabic.

All Official documents of the African Judo Union must be published in French and English. Congresses, meetings and sessions must be held in these three languages.

In the event of a discrepancy in interpretation between the official languages, the original language in which the document was written shall prevail.

6.2 Simultaneous Interpretation

Simultaneous interpretation must be made available at least in French, English and Arabic at all Congresses.

Article 7 - Bodies of the AJU.

7.1 Bodies of the AJU

The bodies of the African Judo Union are the following:

- The Congress is the supreme body of the AJU. The ordinary Congress is held every two years and is governed by articles 8 and 10 hereafter. The powers of the Congress are listed in the article 8.3. The Extraordinary Congress is governed by Articles 9 and 10 of the Statutes.
- The Directing Committee (“DC.”), governed by Article 11 of the Statutes and whose powers are listed in the article 11.1.
- The Executive Committee (“EC”), governed by Article 12 of the Statutes and whose powers are listed in the article 12.2.

7.2 Signing Authority of the AJU

The joint dual signature of the President and the General Treasurer is required for the AJU to be bound.

The AJU DC may designate other persons empowered with a collective dual signature.

Article 8 - The Ordinary Congress

8.1 Meetings

The Congress shall be held every two (2) years, the year before the Olympic Games and the year after the Olympic Games, at a place designated by the DC.

The Congress must be held at the same time as another AJU event in the same city. When choosing the place where the Congress will be held, an equitable rotation amongst the different National Federations shall be taken into account.

8.2 Powers

The Congress shall have the power to:

- a) Define, orient and control the general policies of the AJU;
- b) approve on the Minutes of the preceding Congress;
- c) approve on the reports of the President which shall be valid as the DC. as well as the reports of the Chairman, General Secretary, the General Treasurer and the Technical Directors;
- d) approve, amend or reject the accounts of the previous accounting period and the budget for the accounting period to come;

- e) elect every (4) years the members of the DC for a four (4) year term of office
- f) ratify the designation by the President of one (1) to four (4) additional members of the DC.
- g) Ratify expulsions decided by the DC of one of the DC members.
- h) decide on the expulsion of a member of the DC. if requested by at least one-third (1/3) of the National Federations;
- i) Approve the Statutes and the regulations, and make all necessary amendments thereto;
- j) decide on sporting and technical issues related to judo training and techniques, refereeing, judo Education, development and promotion;
- k) decide on the validity of the authority of a representative of a National Federation;
- l) decide in the last resort on all issues concerning the aims of the AJU;
- m) decide on all proposals submitted by Member National Federations and the DC;
- n) decide on any other issues set down on the agenda.

8.3 Proposals of AJU Member Federations

At least one hundred and twenty (120) calendar days prior to the Congress, the General Secretary must invite the member National Federations to submit points they would like to include on the agenda. These proposals must be sent in at least ninety (90) days before the date scheduled for the Congress.

8.4 Agenda and convening of the Congress

The Congress may consider only the points which are included in the agenda. The agenda shall be decided on by the DC between sixty (60) and seventy-five (75) calendar days before the date scheduled for the Congress. This agenda must naturally include all issues within the Congress' powers. At least sixty (60) calendar days before the date scheduled for the Congress, the General Secretary will send to the Member National Federations, the DC members and the IJF General Secretary, notice to attend the Congress, signed by the President or the General Secretary, with the Agenda drawn up by the DC; and the reports of the President, the Chairman, the Secretary General, the General Treasurer and the Directors.

Notices of the Congress shall be sent to members via electronic mail, and a return receipt requested. In the event that the acknowledgment of receipt is not received by the AJU General Secretary, a registered letter will be sent after a 10-day period, with a return receipt requested. The date the email with return receipt request is sent shall be the sole date used as proof that notice was validly given within the required time limit.

8.5 Urgent matters

The EC shall decide on the order in which the points on the Agenda will be discussed.

Matters that the DC considers urgent, and which have arisen too late for inclusion on the agenda may be added before the date of the Congress.

When a decision falling within the purview of the Congress must be made while the Congress cannot be gathered, it is possible to consult the delegates to the Congress via mail or electronic means. Decisions made via written consultation (postal or electronic) have the same value as those made during a meeting of the AJU Congress.

8.6 Representation of Member National Federations

Each Member National Federation may be represented at the Congress by two (2) delegates of the same nationality as that Federation, selected among the members of its Executive Committee on the condition they have been elected democratically by their clubs.

Delegates must be registered on the attendance sheet. Only one of the two Delegates have the right to vote, as each Member National Federation shall have a single vote.

8.7 Credentials

Each delegate of a Member National Federation must be in possession of credentials signed by the President of his National Federation unless the delegate is the President himself.

The delegate of the Member National Federation must be citizen and permanent resident of the country he represents.

8.8-Interpreting assistance

Any member National Federation of the AJU whose language is not one of the official languages being used, may also have their own interpreter in attendance.

8.9 Observers

Observers may be invited to the Congress by the DC in a consultancy role.

8.10 Voting Right Credentials Commission

The verification of valid membership of National Federations and of the credentials held by the representatives of National Federations with valid membership in the AJU shall be carried out the day prior to the Congress by the Voting Right Credentials Commission. This Commission shall be composed from three (3) to five (5) members appointed for this purpose by the DC of the AJU, assisted by the legal expert or the lawyer of the AJU. In the event of a dispute, the Voting Right Credentials Commission shall hear the claims of the parties, draw up a summary of these claims and submit the dispute to the Congress so that the Congress may settle such dispute by way of a vote before any other business is dealt with.

8.11 Chairmanship of the Congress

The Congress shall be chaired by the President of the AJU or if absent, by a Vice-president appointed by the President. However, if a member of the DC is also a member of the IOC, that member shall replace the President.

8.12 Chairmanship Pro-term

During the election of the President or a no-confidence vote against the President, the President will surrender his seat to a Vice-president appointed by the DC as a Chairperson Pro-term to conduct the said election or no-confidence vote.

In the case of elections for President, the newly elected President will take over the chair immediately after the election.

If a no-confidence vote against the President is ratified, the Chairperson Pro-Term will chair the Congress until it is closed. However, if the no-confidence vote is defeated, the President will resume the chair and will chair the Congress until it is closed.

8.13 Quorum

The Chairperson of the Congress may only declare the official opening of the Congress when at least one-third (1/3) of the Member National Federations are present.

If the quorum to open the Congress is not met, another Congress must be convened and must be held within a maximum period of one hundred and twenty (120) calendar days. The Congress shall only be effective if 25% of the Member National Federations are present.

The agenda will be identical, as well as the conditions for giving notice of the meeting.

8.14 Proxies

Voting by proxy is not allowed.

8.15 Voting rights

The members of the DC do not have voting rights at Congress. Any person who is elected or appointed as a Member of the EC shall automatically surrender their right to vote at Congress forthwith.

If any member of the Directing Committee is President or delegate of its own country he may enjoy the right to vote of his country if he is registered on the attendance sheet at the beginning of the Congress.

8.16 Decisions

The Congress shall decide by a simple majority of the valid votes cast unless otherwise defined in the Statutes. Abstentions and invalid ballots shall not be counted. For questions of particular importance or sensitive issues or whenever one-third (1/3) of the Member National Federations present at the Congress so demand, voting shall be conducted by secret ballot.

8.17 Voting procedures

Voting for elections must be conducted by secret ballot unless there is one (1) candidate. If there is only one (1) candidate that person may be elected by show of hands, unless one third (1/3) of the Member National Federations present at the Congress request that a vote by way of secret ballot takes place.

Voting in elections for the offices shall be carried out by successive elimination of candidates receiving the least number of votes until one (1) candidate remains or until one (1) candidate obtains more than fifty percent (50%) of the votes cast.

Voting by secret ballot may be done via electronic voting. In any case, the necessary materials for voting on paper (e.g. ballots, voting booths) must be provided for, in particular in case of a technical failure.

8.18 Voting Board and Presentation of Candidates

8.18.1 Scrutineers and Voting Board Chairperson

The Congress shall organise a voting board by electing Scrutineers and a Chairperson of the voting board, chosen from among those delegates of Member Federations who are not presenting any candidates for office.

They shall be in charge of all matters in connection with voting.

The DC shall suggest the number of scrutineers to be elected.

8.18.2 Presentation of candidates

If an election is being held, each candidate for the office of President will be allowed a maximum of seven (7) minutes to present their candidacy, their manifest, and their list.

Any candidate for the office of chairman will be allowed a maximum of three (3) minutes to give a presentation.

Any candidate for the office of General Secretary and General Treasurer will be allowed three (3) minutes to give a presentation.

If there is more than one candidate per office, the speaking order shall be determined by alphabetical order of the candidates' surnames.

8.19 Practical voting procedures

The voting procedure will be determined by the DC that will be communicated with the agenda of the Congress.

8.20 Counting of votes

Once the voting has been completed, the Chairman of the Congress shall announce that the vote is closed and shall ask the scrutineers to start counting the votes cast.

The Chairperson of the Voting Board will be assisted by the scrutineers to count the votes. The President of the Voting Board will announce the results of the votes cast to Congress.

8.21 Challenge of elections

In the event the validity of an election is challenged, the President shall be immediately notified thereof and shall submit the case to the DC. If the DC takes the challenge into consideration, it must be reported to the Congress where re-examination, re-election, re-vote or any other action as deemed necessary by the DC shall occur. Only AJU Member Federations present at the Congress may challenge the election and any such challenge must be submitted before the end of the Congress.

8.22 Voting rounds

In the event of an equal vote during an election by way of secret ballot, a second and final round of votes shall be conducted.

In the event that the second and final vote also results in a tie, the election result shall be determined by the drawing of lots conducted by the Chairperson.

For all other elections, when an equal number of votes is cast, the status quo shall be maintained.

8.23 Minutes

Each member of the DC shall receive a copy of the draft Minutes of the Congress within ninety (90) days after the Congress is held.

The DC shall approve the draft Minutes at the first DC meeting held after the said ninety (90) days.

The approved draft Minutes shall be sent to the Member National Federations by the AJU General Secretariat.

8.24 Surveillance of Conduct

The Chairperson of the Congress is the AJU President who shall have the right to take all measures to stop any disruptive conduct obstructing the efficient administration of the Congress.

Article 9 - Extraordinary Congress

9.1 Convening of an Extraordinary Congress

An Extraordinary Congress must be convened by the President or the Secretary General at a location chosen by the DC if at least two-thirds (2/3) of the Member National Federations so request, or if 1/3 of the DC considers it necessary.

9.2 Procedure

In this case, the Extraordinary Congress must be held within ninety (90) calendar days on which:

- Either the request containing the reasons for the meeting has been sent via registered mail, email or facsimile by two-thirds (2/3) of the AJU Member National Federations,
- Or the DC has decided (1/3 of the members of the DC) to convene the Extraordinary Congress.

9.3 Agenda

The Agenda for the meeting must indicate the reasons for the Extraordinary Congress and shall constitute the sole items on the agenda. Only those items on the agenda shall be discussed.

9.4 Decisions

The discussions and decisions passed at an Extraordinary Congress shall have equal validity with those passed at an Ordinary Congress.

The discussions and decisions passed at an Extraordinary Congress must meet the same conditions as those requires for an Ordinary Congress.

Article 10 – Provisions Common to discussions and decisions at Ordinary and Extraordinary Congresses.

10.1 Challenge

Decisions passed at an Ordinary or Extraordinary Congress may not be annulled if, in spite of the existence of one or several voting irregularities, the vote held on such Decisions would have passed in any event.

10.2 Internal appeal procedure

The National Federations, as well as all legal entities or private individuals directly or indirectly connected to them shall have no right to take legal action against the AJU on the basis of discussions or decisions passed by the Congress of the AJU without having first submitted their complaint to the AJU Executive Committee.

Article 11 – The Directing Committee (DC.)

11.1 Powers

The DC. shall determine the orientation for AJU activities and shall ensure implementation thereof within the limits of the aims of the AJU subject to the powers expressly attributed to the Congress under these Statutes.

- The DC shall handle all issues related to the proper operation of the AJU and shall settle business it is involved in by way of decisions.
- The DC shall carry out all audits and verifications it deems necessary.
- The DC shall validate urgent decisions under its authority made by the President.
- The DC has the power to decide on all issues that have not been placed under the authority of another AJU governing body pursuant to these Statutes.

11.2 Composition

The DC is composed as follows:

- A President who forms a list of seven to eleven (7 to 11) members, having the authorization of their national federation to be included in the list, who will be elected at the same time as the

African Judo Union

Original text in French

President by the Congress and through a list ballot every four (4) years for a term of office of four (4) years;

- Two Vice-presidents are designated by the DC on the proposal of the President, among the members, appearing on the President's list of seven to eleven (7-11), who have been elected by the Congress with the President.
- They are responsible to the DC and the Congress.
- A Chairman elected by the Congress every four (4) years
- A General Secretary elected by the Congress every four (4) years;
- A General Treasurer elected by the Congress every four (4) years;
- The head of the Athletes' Commission elected by his peers in accordance with the rules of this commission.
- If the President deems necessary one or more ex officio members, namely: Presidents, officers, honorary members in accordance with articles 29.1, 29.1.2 and 29.2 of these statutes.

If the President deems necessary that the tasks to be performed by the DC requires to have four (4) additional members maximum, he could appoint, after the election one (1) to four (4) additional members who will hold voting rights within the DC their appointment must be ratified by the next Congress.

11.3 Presidency

The DC shall be chaired by the President. In the event the President cannot be present at a meeting of the DC, the President shall appoint a Vice-president to replace him. If a member of the DC is also a member of the IOC, that member shall take on this duty.

11.4 Filing of candidacies

- a) Names of candidates for the elections of the positions of President, Chairman, General Secretary, and General Treasurer must be received at least one hundred and twenty (120) calendar days before the date scheduled for the Congress.
- b) The lists of members for the DC suggested by the candidates for the position of President must be received by the General Secretary at least ninety (90) calendar days before the date of Congress.
- c) The General Secretary shall send the candidacies and the lists of persons proposed as members for the DC by the candidates to the position of President with the notice and documents for the Congress at least sixty (60) calendar days before the date scheduled for the Congress.
- d) Nomination of candidates from the floor will not be accepted at a Congress.

- e) Individual candidacies and the candidacies presented by the president on his list must be duly signed by the president of the National Federation the candidate is a member of. All candidates must be citizens and permanent residents of the countries of the Federation presenting their candidates, except for political exiles.
- f) Eligibility to be nominated as an Executive Member of the AJU or any other Zonal Judo Organisation, the nominee must have been a President of an AJU member Federation for a minimum period of one Olympic Cycle or 4 years.
- g) Eligibility to be nominated on the list of the President for a position on the AJU DC, the nominee must have held a position in either the executive or directing committee of his/her Federation for a minimum period of one Olympic Cycle or 4 years.
- h) Directing Committee members running for re-election do not need the confirmation of their National Federations and are not subject to the above conditions.

11.5 Term of Office

The Members elected to the DC shall remain in office until the Ordinary Congress convened in the fourth year of their term.

Elections for President and the members of his list composed of seven to eleven (7 to 11) members shall take place during the Congress held the year following the Olympic Games.

The elections for the positions of Chairman, General Secretary and General Treasurer must be held at the time of the same Congress.

11.6 Plurality of offices

A person may not be a candidate for the presidency of the AJU or of a member federation affiliated with the AJU:

- If they exercise or have exercised in the past two (2) Olympiads on the day of their candidacy the managing role of a sports federation, of a decentralized body or of a club of a discipline other than judo that might be considered a competing sport, in terms of political or technical representation.
- Regarding Member National Federations, the African Judo Union, via its Executive Committee, may examine particular cases and grant exemptions if the conflict of interest is not demonstrated.

- Vice Presidents - cannot hold more than one office on the AJU DC at the same time.
- No Member National Federation shall have more than two (2) member on the AJU DC.
- The candidates cannot be first degree relatives and spouses.
- No candidate may be over eighty (80) years old on the date of the election.

11.7 Vacant seats

If because of death, resignation, a long-term impediment, impeachment or any other reason, a seat other than that of the President becomes vacant on the Directing Committee, the DC may appoint an interim Member to serve until the next Congress.

11.8 DC.'s meetings

As a general rule, the DC shall meet at least once (1) per year and particularly during the days preceding the Congress. A meeting of the Directing Committee may, however, be convened by the President each time the President deems it necessary or at the request of a majority of the members of the DC.

If an elected member of the DC cannot attend a meeting of the DC for a valid reason, he can give a proxy to another member of the AJU DC. but cannot send someone to replace him if this latter is not a member of the DC.

11.9 Agenda

An agenda must be established for each meeting. The members shall submit to the General Secretary the items they wish to have included on the agenda thirty (30) calendar days prior to the date scheduled for the meeting. The General Secretary shall prepare the agenda, inform the President and then send the notice of the meeting, along with the agenda and the necessary working documents fifteen (15) calendar days prior to the meeting.
