

IJF Refereeing Commission

IJF International Examination Requirements

General Examination Information

The IJF Refereeing Commission in cooperation with the Continental Judo Unions organise IJF International Referees Examinations. Each continent should host every second year one IJF International examination.

The recommended number for one IJF International Referees examination is 15 candidates for the organising continent based on first come, first served. In addition, a number of five (5) candidates from other continents are accepted. Each National Federation can nominate two (2) candidates and in addition one (1) more candidate who is medallist of the seniors Continental Championships, World Championships or Olympic Games.

The candidates will be nominated by the National Federations and confirmed by the Continental Judo Union Refereeing Director. Each candidate can take part in the IJF International Examination maximum two times.

For the IJF International Referees Examination, the candidates have to pass with a minimum of 70% the Theoretical Paper Test. In case of failing first Theoretical Paper Test, a second test can be done immediately.

After passing first or second Theoretical Paper Test, the candidate is invited to the English Language Interview, where the English knowledge at the level of communication will be proved.

After passing the English Language Interview, the candidates are invited to the Practical Session Test.

Requirements

1. Age: 30 to 50 years in the examination year, i.e., in 2025 the candidates should be born in 1995 to 1975.
Over the next few years there will be a period of transition to adapt to these new ages. During the transition period exceptions may be granted. Exceptions will be reviewed on a case-by-case basis and approved the IJF Head Referee Directors.
2. Highest National Referee Licence.
3. IJF Continental Referee Licence.
4. The recommendation time between IJF Continental and IJF International examinations is two to five years.
5. List of active refereeing at national and international level in the last two years. The minimum refereeing activity is four events each year, eight events in two years.
