Tashkent Grand Slam, Uzbekistan 28 February - 02 March 2025

@MariusVizer

Dear judoka, dear delegations,

We extend a warm welcome to you as the IJF World Judo Tour arrives in Tashkent, Uzbekistan. This is a capital city that is a crossroads of cultures in Central Asia.

Surrounded by both history and progress, we are guaranteed organisational excellence. The Uzbek capital is now a staple destination for the world's best judoka, who have enjoyed hospitality and passion each year at the grand slam as well as at the 2022 world championships; no better place to come after the splendour of our season-opening event in Paris just weeks ago and our outstanding visit to Baku even more recently.

There is no doubt that the judo in Tashkent will be spectacular and the welcome will be generous and familial, with every aspect of our sporting environment taken care of. We wish safe journeys and success to all athletes travelling to Uzbekistan. I thank all coaches, volunteers and organisers for their ongoing hard work and positivity.

Welcome to Tashkent.

Marius L. VIZER
President
International Judo Federation

Tashkent Grand Slam, Uzbekistan 28 February - 02 March 2025

Dear Judo Family,

It is with great pleasure that I announce the Tashkent Grand Slam 2025, set to take place in our vibrant city of Tashkent.

This year holds special significance for Uzbekistan. The gold medal won by Diyora Keldiyorova and the bronze medals earned by Muzaffarbek Turoboyev and Alisher Yusupov at the Paris 2024 Olympic Games have brought immense pride to our nation. These accomplishments affirm that Uzbekistan is on its path to becoming a leading country in the world of judo. The foundation of these successes lies in the unwavering support for the development of sports by His Excellency President Shavkat Mirziyoyev.

In recent years, we have experienced a pivotal transformation in the history of judo in our country. We have achieved historic milestones and set new standards. High-quality training facilities have been established nationwide, allowing every judoka in Uzbekistan - even in remote areas - the opportunity to hone their skills.

Our mission extends beyond creating champions on the tatami; we aim to foster the development of healthy and strong youth.

I am confident that this tournament, as always, will be conducted at the highest level. I believe that every participant will leave Uzbekistan with cherished memories, positive impressions, and a deeper appreciation for our country's hospitality.

I would like to extend my heartfelt gratitude to the President of the International Judo Federation, Mr Marius Vizer, for his trust and support in organizing such a prestigious competition.

As we celebrate this event, we are also excited to look ahead to future milestones, such as Tashkent proudly hosting high-level events like the Tashkent World Judo Championship 2022, further solidifying our nation's place in the global judo community.

Thank you, and may the Tashkent Grand Slam 2025 be a great success!

Yours sincerely,

Azizjon KAMILOV
President
Uzbekistan Judo Federation
