2. Athlete Development

- 112 athletes received Olympic Solidarity scholarships to prepare for Paris OG.

3. Master Coach certification

- 163 coaches were awarded an IJF Master Coach licence.

Below is the distribution of the number of licences per continent:

- ✓ EJU: 98
- ✓ JUA: 35
- ✓ PJC: 35
- ✓ AJU: 07
- ✓ OJU: 02

4. Values and ethics

- IJF ethics rules were enforced.
- A PowerPoint presentation on judo values and ethics was delivered during the IJF Technical Seminar in Istanbul (14th and 15th December 2024).
- We have noted relevant progress benchmarks.

5. Judogi control

- Strict enforcement of IJF judogi regulations to ensure fairness.
- Good co-operation with IJF recognised judogi suppliers to adjust judogi to new rules.
- A video was produced by the IJF TV team to explain the new rules. Video posted on social networks.

6. Renewal of the IJF Athletes Commission

- Alongside the Hungary World Judo Championships, athletes will vote for their representatives: one athlete per continent.
- The IJF Athletes' Commission plays a crucial role in ensuring athletes' voices are heard and contribute to the governance and development of judo worldwide.
- The IJF ensures that athletes' interests, concerns and needs remain at the centre of its policies and initiatives.

Acknowledgements

I would like to extend my heartfelt thanks to President Mr Marius Vizer for his continued support for the Education Commission.

I would also like to convey my sincere thanks to my colleagues of the Executive Committee and members of my team for their commitment and contribution to judo's development worldwide.
