Guadalajara Grand Prix, Mexico

17 - 19 October 2025

@MariusVizer

Dear judo family,

We are excited to be able to welcome all our judo friends back to Guadalajara for the first time since the 2016 World Judo Masters. This grand prix sees Mexico rejoin the World Judo Tour, further embedding the Pan-American continent in preparations for the Los Angeles 2028 Olympic Games.

Guadalajara offers a backdrop of vibrant art and music scenes while also being a modern centre for business and economic ventures. This diverse city will deliver the perfect environment for our athletes to reach for excellence while enjoying the culture of the region.

An animated and engaging crowd will be eager to applaud their local rising stars after Mexico enjoyed an unprecedented Olympic appearance last year, winning an historic silver medal, Mexico's first ever Olympic medal in judo. This is a strong foundation from which to develop a thriving judo community, one with belief and skill, unified towards the goal of progress. This will underpin the grand prix and so we are looking forward to sharing this atmosphere not only with Mexico's judoka but with the global judo family.

Here we have been invited to enjoy the friendship of our Mexican hosts and so we arrive ready to support the organisers, federation staff and volunteers in their endeavours. We wish you all good health, continued progress and a spectacular stage of the Tour.

Welcome to Guadalajara!

Yours in judo,

Marius L. VIZER
President
International Judo Federation
