Qingdao Grand Prix, China

26 - 28 September 2025

@MariusVizer

Dear judoka, dear judo family,

Welcome back to China! The city of Qingdao is preparing to open its doors to the World Judo Tour for the first time since the 2019 World Judo Masters.

The Chinese Judo Association has a great deal of experience having hosted not only the Masters but also the grand prix events of Hohhot and Qingdao in recent years and this return to our calendar is testament to the dedication of the organising team; there is no doubt that we will enjoy the finest hospitality in Qingdao.

This is a modern city with a bustling, important seaport, while also being a major commercial and financial centre for the country. The mix of traditional and contemporary Chinese architecture with Western European influences offers visitors a vibrant experience, one our judo family will undoubtedly embrace.

I wish all participants, organisers, volunteers and spectators an outstanding tournament and a cultural adventure to live long in the memory. The Qingdao Grand Prix is ready to welcome you!

Yours in judo,

Marius L. VIZER
President

As you step onto its shores, you will not only feel the warmth of our hospitality but also sense the deep reverence we hold for the sport of judo. Judo is more than a sport and China has been committed to nurturing the growth of judo for a long time. Hosting this grand prix is a testament to our dedication to fostering international collaboration and friendship through this noble sport.

Once again, welcome to Qingdao. May the Qingdao Grand Prix be a showcase of excellence, a celebration of friendship and an illustration of the power of sport to unite us all.
