 @MariusVizer

Dear judo family,

Welcome to Abu Dhabi and the penultimate grand slam of the year.

The UAE Judo Federation has been more than a friend in recent years, working tirelessly to stage the biggest events of the calendar, including outstanding editions of the veteran and kata world championships and the 2024 World Championships for seniors.

The progressive thinking of the organisers has ensured that our judo family is always safe and happy in Abu Dhabi. This year is no different and so we can look forward to extraordinary hospitality and an understanding of all the details which enable our judoka to perform their very best.

Abu Dhabi is a bustling city that boasts both state-of-the-art architecture and respect for the region's history and cultures. It is the perfect destination to stage the penultimate World Judo Tour event of 2025.

I continue to be proud of our sport and it's dedicated people, who strive to excel in ever-changing circumstances; it is testament to our values and spirit that we always find a way to prevail. I wish all delegations, judoka, volunteers and organisers a fulfilling visit to the United Arab Emirates; Abu Dhabi is, as always, at your service.

Yours in judo,

Marius L. VIZER

Dear Guest,
Dear Judo Friends,

It is with great honor that the UAE Judo Federation once again welcomes you to the United Arab Emirates for the 11th edition of the Judo Grand Slam in Abu Dhabi. Celebrating more than a decade of excellence in hosting Judo Grand Slam, this event has stood as a testament to our unwavering dedication to the sport of Judo, and we are proud to continue hosting the global Judo community in our nation's capital.

Since hosting our 1st edition of Abu Dhabi Judo Grand Prix in 2009, Abu Dhabi has risen as a renowned destination for world-class Judo Championships. This year marks our 15th year of successfully organizing International Judo events in the United Arab Emirates. Following the great success of the Judo World Championships Abu Dhabi 2024, it is with pride and confidence that we welcome all national federations to the 11th edition of the Grand Slam Abu Dhabi 2025.

This Grand Slam is set to be an exceptional celebration of skill, sportsmanship, and the true spirit of Judo. We eagerly anticipate remarkable performances and the forging of friendships that cross borders. Let us unite to honor the camaraderie and unity that Judo represents, and to further strengthen the global Judo community.

We look forward to welcoming national federations, distinguished delegates, and athletes from around the world, each adding to the vibrant and dynamic spirit of this competition.

I wish to express my heartfelt gratitude to Mr Marius Vizer, President of the International Judo Federation, for his visionary leadership and steadfast commitment to advancing judo across the globe.
