@MariusVizer

Dear judoka, dear judo family,

Welcome to Switzerland! The city of Lausanne is preparing to open its doors to the World Judo Tour for the first time and we could not be prouder! Hosting its first grand slam marks a major milestone for both Swiss judo and the global judo calendar.

Nestled on the shores of Lake Geneva and known for being the Olympic capital, Lausanne will provide an exceptional setting for the world's top judoka to gather, compete and showcase the highest level of our sport. Switzerland has a long judo tradition, educationally and competitively, and taking this step is a clear sign that the level is continuing to rise.

Lausanne, as the home of the International Olympic Committee, carries an important symbolic meaning and so this collaboration takes on an extra layer of significance. As we are now inside the qualification period for the Los Angeles Olympic Games 2028, this is a fitting moment to arrive in Switzerland.

In addition, for the first time ever, this grand slam will include Para and adaptive judo events, bringing the vibrant and diverse judo family together in a celebration of the whole community. By bringing our World Judo Tour and Para-athletes to the same tatami, the Ecole Mont-Olivet Judo Grand Slam aims to promote a vision of judo that is open, universal and inclusive, values that resonate strongly with the city's sporting identity.

We wish all our friends, delegations, partners and organisers an incredible first Ecole Mont-Olivet Grand Slam.

Yours in judo,

Marius L. VIZER
President
International Judo Federation

Ecole Mont-Olivet Deaf Judo Masters Lausanne, Switzerland 29 - 30 August 2026

Dear judo family,

It is with immense pride that I welcome you to the very first edition of the Ecole Mont-Olivet Grand Slam 2026.

For the first time in its history, Lausanne will host a stage of the World Judo Tour, marking a major milestone for both Swiss and international judo.

Over three days of competition at the Vaudoise Arena, the world's best judoka will come together to celebrate sporting excellence, respect, and self-improvement. This edition will also be historic with the inclusion of para-judo in the Grand Slam programme — featuring adapted judo, judo for the hearing impaired, and judo for the visually impaired — a world first that reflects our commitment to making judo an ever more inclusive and accessible sport.

As we approach major international milestones, including the 2027 World Championships and the Los Angeles 2028 Olympic and Paralympic Games, the Ecole Mont-Olivet Grand Slam will represent an important step in athletes' journey toward performance and excellence.

I would like to extend my heartfelt thanks to the International Judo Federation, as well as to all the athletes, coaches, referees, volunteers, and partners who make this event possible.

Let us make the Ecole Mont-Olivet Grand Slam 2026 a historic moment for our sport, carrying the values that unite us and inspire future generations.

Sergei ASCHWANDEN
President
Swiss Judo Federation

Dear judoka,
Dear judo families,
Dear deaf and hard-of-hearing judoka,

Welcome to the very first edition of the Ecole Mont-Olivet Grand Slam 2026, a historic moment for Lausanne as it hosts, for the first time, a stage of the World Judo Tour, and the for the first time the inclusion of judo appears, as for the first time The Masters Top 18 of Deaf Judo is going to take place.

For two days at the Vaudoise Arena, top international judoka will come together to celebrate excellence, respect, and the spirit of challenge.

This edition also marks a major milestone with the integration of deaf and hard-of-hearing judoka, a significant step toward a more inclusive and globally connected judo community. I warmly thank the International Judo Federation, the Swiss Judo Federation, the organizing committees, as well as all athletes, coaches, referees, volunteers, and partner who make this event possible.
