Ecole Mont-Olivet Adapted Judo Grand Slam Lausanne, Switzerland 28 August 2026

@MariusVizer

Dear judoka, dear judo family,

Welcome to Switzerland! The city of Lausanne is preparing to open its doors to the World Judo Tour for the first time and we could not be prouder! Hosting its first grand slam marks a major milestone for both Swiss judo and the global judo calendar.

Nestled on the shores of Lake Geneva and known for being the Olympic capital, Lausanne will provide an exceptional setting for the world's top judoka to gather, compete and showcase the highest level of our sport. Switzerland has a long judo tradition, educationally and competitively, and taking this step is a clear sign that the level is continuing to rise.

Lausanne, as the home of the International Olympic Committee, carries an important symbolic meaning and so this collaboration takes on an extra layer of significance. As we are now inside the qualification period for the Los Angeles Olympic Games 2028, this is a fitting moment to arrive in Switzerland.

In addition, for the first time ever, this grand slam will include Para and adaptive judo events, bringing the vibrant and diverse judo family together in a celebration of the whole community. By bringing our World Judo Tour and Para-athletes to the same tatami, the Ecole Mont-Olivet Judo Grand Slam aims to promote a vision of judo that is open, universal and inclusive, values that resonate strongly with the city's sporting identity.

We wish all our friends, delegations, partners and organisers an incredible first Ecole Mont-Olivet Grand Slam.

Yours in judo,

Marius L. VIZER
President
International Judo Federation

Ecole Mont-Olivet Adapted Judo Grand Slam Lausanne, Switzerland 28 August 2026

Dear judo family,

It is with immense pride that I welcome you to the very first edition of the Ecole Mont-Olivet Grand Slam 2026.

For the first time in its history, Lausanne will host a stage of the World Judo Tour, marking a major milestone for both Swiss and international judo.

Over three days of competition at the Vaudoise Arena, the world's best judoka will come together to celebrate sporting excellence, respect, and self-improvement. This edition will also be historic with the inclusion of para-judo in the Grand Slam programme — featuring adapted judo, judo for the hearing impaired, and judo for the visually impaired — a world first that reflects our commitment to making judo an ever more inclusive and accessible sport.

As we approach major international milestones, including the 2027 World Championships and the Los Angeles 2028 Olympic and Paralympic Games, the Ecole Mont-Olivet Grand Slam will represent an important step in athletes' journey toward performance and excellence.

I would like to extend my heartfelt thanks to the International Judo Federation, as well as to all the athletes, coaches, referees, volunteers, and partners who make this event possible.

Let us make the Ecole Mont-Olivet Grand Slam 2026 a historic moment for our sport, carrying the values that unite us and inspire future generations.

Sergei ASCHWANDEN
President
Swiss Judo Federation

Ecole Mont-Olivet Adapted Judo Grand Slam Lausanne, Switzerland 28 August 2026

Dear Judo Family and Friends,

Judo was founded on the conviction that every individual possesses value, potential, and the capacity for growth. This principle continues to guide us today and finds one of its most powerful expressions in Adapted Judo. The Lausanne Grand Slam Adapted Judo event is not simply another addition to the international competition calendar; it is a powerful statement of what our sport represents and the future we are building together.

Each athlete who steps onto the tatami represents a journey of dedication and love for our sport. We witness courage, perseverance, and passion overcoming barriers. We experience the very essence of judo. In the Olympic Capital of Lausanne, we celebrate not only sporting achievements but also the values that unite us beyond borders, cultures, and abilities.

As President of the European Judo Union, I am immensely proud of the progress we have made in creating meaningful opportunities for athletes with disabilities across Europe and beyond. This is the result of the dedication of athletes, families, coaches, clubs, national federations, and organisers, whose collective efforts continue to strengthen and unite our judo family.

I would also like to express my sincere appreciation to the International Judo Federation and its President, Marius Vizer, for their vision and commitment to the development of Adapted Judo and the creation of this historic event.

May this competition be a celebration of friendship, inclusion, and excellence, and may it remind us that judo is for all.

Thank you for showing the world what judo truly represents.

Yours in Judo,

Laszlo TOTH
President
European Judo Union

The competitors will compete under the full responsibility of their clubs and federations.

Clubs and national federations are responsible for insuring their competitors against “injury and third-party risk (public liability)” during the period of the event; each club or national federation must assume all responsibility for accident and health insurance as well as civil liabilities during the event for everyone under their charge.

The International Judo Federation, the European Judo Union and the Local Organising Committee decline all responsibility.

The LOC of the event and the IJF and the EJU have no liability for any claims of injury, illness or death arising from the travelling to and the participation in this event.
