

EXTEND YOUR EXPERIENCE IN LAUSANNE

INTERNATIONAL TRAINING CAMP 2026

Dear delegations and judokas,

After three days at the heart of world-class judo during the Lausanne Judo Grand Slam 2026, the experience continues with an International Training Camp, organized by the Swiss Judo Federation.

From August 31 to September 3 2026, athletes will have the opportunity to train together in an exceptional environment, right after the competition, in the Olympic Capital.

TRAIN WITH THE WORLD'S BEST

Following the Grand Slam, which will bring together the top elite and para-judo athletes from around the world, the training camp offers a unique opportunity to:

- train alongside international-level athletes
- benefit from a highly competitive environment
- extend your stay in Lausanne and maximize your experience

This camp is fully aligned with the spirit of the event, bringing together athletes in a dynamic, inclusive, and high-performance setting. The swiss national Team Senior and U21 will be on the spot with its best Judokas.
