@MariusVizer

Dear judo family,

Welcome back to the bustling city of Budapest for the first time since the 2025 World Championships, the International Judo Federation's hugely successful flagship event. This is a city accustomed to the challenges of staging events at the highest level 2017 and we will continue this momentum to bring the judo world a spectacular tournament.

The Hungarian government continues to provide support for the sport of judo, collaborating at every level of delivery to ensure a world-class environment for our visiting friends. With consistent high standards of organisation, every coach, volunteer, athlete and referee can focus on producing their very best work in a perfect environment.

I, the Hungarian organisers and the International Judo Federation thank all sponsors, partners and volunteers for their professionalism, positivity and care. Without you, our development to this point may not have been possible.

Welcome to Budapest!

Yours in judo,

Marius L. VIZER

Dear Judo Family,

It is my great pleasure to welcome you to Budapest for the Hungary Judo Grand Slam 2026. We are honored to host the world's best judoka once again here in Budapest for this flagship event of the IJF World Judo Tour.

It is our privilege to organize an event that truly represents excellence, tradition and the highest standards of our sport.

Over the years, Budapest has established itself as one of judo's most trusted and celebrated host cities. We are delighted to welcome the international judo community back to the Papp László Budapest Sportaréna, a venue that has become synonymous with our greatest international events and continues to provide an outstanding stage for world-class competition.

While the pursuit of sporting excellence will undoubtedly deliver unforgettable moments on the tatami, the true spirit of judo extends far beyond victory. Throughout this Grand Slam, the values of our sport will once again unite athletes from every corner of the world in an atmosphere of mutual respect and fair play.

On behalf of the Hungarian Judo Association, I would like to express my sincere appreciation to the International Judo Federation and IJF President, Mr Marius L. Vizer, for their confidence and continuous support in bringing another IJF World Tour event to Budapest. I would also like to extend my heartfelt gratitude to the Government of Hungary for its unwavering commitment to international sport and for its invaluable support in making this prestigious event possible.

My thanks also go to our partners, sponsors, volunteers, referees, officials and everyone whose dedication and hard work contribute to the success of this competition. Their commitment ensures that Budapest continues to be recognized as one of the leading homes of international judo.
